Reservoir Is Completed

Work is now in progress on the final steps of putting into full operation the new 6,000,000 gallon capacity Bancroft Reservoir.

Supt. of Water and Sewers Donald C. Bassett said that the new reservoir is constructed in two compartments, designated as the north and south.

He said that the south compartment is already filled and in use while the north compartment will be filled next week. He explained that leak tests on the north compartment have been made and are satisfactory. The water department head said that during the leak tests, the reservoir was also disinfected and is ready for filling. It takes about 90 hours for the water to be pumped into the under-

Teacher
Examinations Scheduled

Less than two weeks remain for prospective teachers who plan to take the National Teacher Examinations at Boston State College on April 6 to submit their registration for these tests to Educational Testing Service, Princeton, N.J., Dr. Edward Fitzpatrick, testing administrator, announced today.

Registrations for the examinations must be forwarded so as to reach the Princeton Office not later than March 15.

Bulletins of Information describing registration procedures and containing registration forms may be obtained from Boston State College, Rooms 101 or 109, Administration Building, 625 Huntington Ave., Boston, Mass. 02115 or directly from National Teacher Examinations, Educational Testing Service, Box 911, Princeton, N.J. 08540.

At the one-day test session a candidate may take the Common Examinations, which include tests in Professional Education and General Education, and one of the 13 Teaching Area Examinations which are designed to evaluate his understanding of the subject matter and methods applicable to the area he may be assigned to teach.

Each candidate will receive an Admission Ticket. Common Examinations candidates will report at 8:30 a.m. and should finish at 12:25 p.m.

The Teaching Area Examinations will begin at 1:30 p.m. and should finish at approximately 4:15 p.m.

Students
May Obtain
Tax Refund

Students who worked part-time or during the summer may have a refund coming on their 1967 Federal income tax returns, William E. Williams, District Director of Internal Revenue said today.

Students are required to file a tax return if they earned $600 or more. If they earned less than $600 and taxes were withheld from wages by their employers, they should file a return in order to obtain a refund of the tax withheld from their wages.

Unmarried students who earn less than $900 will not owe any Federal income tax. They are entitled to claim the usual $600 personal exemption, plus a $300 minimum standard deduction.

Students are entitled to claim their own personal exemption when filing a tax return, Mr. Williams said. Parents who furnish more than one-half the cost of support for their child who is a full-time student may also claim him as an exemption on their tax return, unless the child is married and is filing a joint return with his or her spouse.

FRATERNITY PLEDGE

Gary H. Barnes, 6 Carisbrooke St., a student at the University of Vermont, has been pledged to Phi Sigma Delta fraternity there.

Republicans File Papers

Paul W. Cronin of the 12th Essex District and Senator Ronald C. MacKenzie of the 7th Middlesex filed signatures to guarantee their place on the ballot, as delegates to the Republican National Convention from the 5th Congressional District.

They stated that Governor John A. Volpe has been consulted on the Ticket and that Congressman F. Bradford Morse fully supports their candidacy.

Mrs. Patricia S. Qua of Tewksbury and Mrs. Marianne W. Brenton of Burlington, both long time active Republican workers, are listed as alternates on the Cronin-MacKenzie slate.

All Massachusetts delegates are required by law to vote for Governor John A. Volpe, a favorite son candidate on the first ballot.

Representative Cronin and Senator MacKenzie stated, "We are proud indeed to have an opportunity to represent the Republicans of the 5th Congressional District at the '68 Convention. The people of the District have the pledge of the entire ticket that we will do our best to see that the Republican party will have the leadership in November that these difficult times demand."

United Fund Leaders Honored

The Greater Lawrence United Fund celebrated going over the top in its 1967 campaign with a victory dinner and presented awards to nine Andover residents for their volunteer work to member agencies of the United Fund. Robert Gable, outgoing president of the United Fund, hosted the Monday night celebration at Central Catholic High School auditorium, Lawrence.

Mrs. Persis B. Crawford Red Cross Canteen chairman for 25 years, Grey Lady and member of the board of directors, was honored for her contribution to the Andover Red Cross.

Other recipients of the awards, chosen by each agency's board of directors, were Douglas Dunbar, of the Andover Visiting Nurse Association; Mrs. Robert L. Kent, from the Andover Youth Center; Mrs. F. Kenneth Godin, of the Merrimack River Girl Scout Council; Mrs. Irving E. Rogers from the Greater Lawrence Guidance Center; Mrs. Joseph Levek, of the Greater Lawrence Association for Retarded Children; Roger Higgins, for his years of service to the International Institute; Winthrop Newcombe for the YMCA and Mrs. William G. Thompson for the YWCA.

Fred Tarbox of Andover won a special attendance award in the form of a ladder to emphasize the "Stand Tall" theme of the successful campaign, which netted $833,733, well over the $805,000 goal.

United Fund officers for the coming year include the following Andover residents: Herbert Tatelman, 120 Hidden Rd., 2nd vice-president; Robert L. Gable, treasurer; and Mrs. David M. Thompson, secretary.

Lenten Program

The second of the United Lenten services on "Religion Through the Arts" on Wednesday, March 6 will present the Fidelio Society of Abbot Academy in a program of sacred music. The program, which begins at 8 p.m. in South Church, is sponsored by South Church, West Parish Church and Free Christian Church, all member churches of the United Church of Christ (Congregational) in Andover.

ground reservoir. Supt. Bassett explained that modern reservoirs are covered. He said that certain types of algae cannot grow without sunlight. Since the underground reservoir is covered there is no sunlight. Foreign matter is also excluded from the reservoir into which pure water is pumped. Evaporation is also minimized in the warm weather.

The new reservoir, located next to the Bancroft school, will provide greater fire protection and will have a bearing on the Underwriters' ratings in the town.

It will also be the source of a reserve water supply in the hot summer months when the system is taxed by lawn sprinklers or other warm weather needs.

The facility will also provide a safeguard in the event of a serious break in a water main. The reservoir could then be relied upon to provide a supply to make up for any loss from the break.

Art Gallery Silverware Recovered

The valuable collection of Paul Revere silverware, stolen from display cases at the Addison Gallery of Art during the night of Feb. 16, was recovered one week later.

Officials of Phillips Academy refused to give any details on the manner in which the silverware was returned.

Published reports during the week indicated that communication was established between gallery curator Bartlett Hayes and a person knowing the whereabouts of the collection. As a result, a rendezvous was designated at which the silverware was recovered.

Andover police maintained after the recovery of the collection that they were still investigating on the theory that larceny of merchandise valued at over $100 had been made.

Braids used to be the sole possession of ten-year-old girls (who left them hanging down to their waists) and middle-aged dowagers (who wound them up into coronets atop the head.)
They used to be more-or-less (mostly more) unattractive.
Things have changed! These lengths, widths and descripyour hairdo - and you! For day or evening, false braids in either hair or yarn or synthetic often "make" the hairdo! A braid can be used with simpliciuse it you can be sure your hair-

There will be Two All-Star Games in each Division. The following are the Overall League Standings in each division as well as the top Offensive and Defensive teams.

Final Games In Men's League

As the schedule draws down to the final two games of the first season of the Over-Thirty league the red-hot Butterflies boast a perfect three for three thus far.

Following the five game schedule, the top four teams compete in a Stanley Cup type playoff. As the tally shows, Doug Anderson's team is virtually assured a playoff position, followed closely by the Strobes and Pick-Ups. Any ties among the top four will be broken by using a total point count from the final league games.

Generally, the league has shaped up physically and from the standpoint of the calibre of game play, the younger members have taxed the older trotters. The latter have responded with a credible display of hook shots and power drives. Inevitably, however, memories of Wasumatter U. are seen only in the gleam of the eye as an errant pass or dribble betrays an old high post pattern.

The Pick-Ups, under Alan Maxwell's direction have shown a strong improvement during their last two games and should provide Anderson's Butterflies with a high scoring test this Thursday evening.

Meanwhile, the Hornets have shown little of their old sting that was displayed during the pre-league games at South School. Dick Marciano's Strobes will be looking for their third win on Thursday while the Buzzers hope to break their tie for third place.

Where a sole individual tenant or property owner desires to employ a sign which is integrated with the building the Board of Appeals may grant an exception depending upon the size of the building and the space available.
- (4) The Board of Appeals may, subject to the provisions of Paragraph 5 below, grant a special exception for an additional sign on a building facing a limited access, high speed highway, limited to the name of the principal tenant of the building.
- (5) In granting special exceptions under the foregoing Paragraphs, the Board of Appeals shall take into account the character of the proposed sign, its relationship with the building and size of the building, if attached to a building, the subject matter of the sign, the impact of the sign upon the highway and such other factors as it deems appropriate. It shall grant such exceptions only with restraint.
- (6) The use of neon or similar gaseous tube signs is prohibited. Fluorescent illumination may be used only for internal illumination of a lighted sign.

Business Reading

MANAGEMENT REVIEW bringing together "the month's best in Business reading" is a new magazine at Memorial Hall Library. For the business owner or executive or for anyone interested in management, this will be one easy source for digests from the well-known national business publications such as Dun's Review, Harvard Business Review, Business Horizons and many others.

Special feature articles are written for Management Review by business executives in various fields. In addition, summaries of other timely articles and short one-paragraph reviews of the new books are included each month.

Like other information fields, business is proliferating a huge quantity of printed words. It becomes more than a challenge to keep up. It is more like a nightmare. This magazine should help out. It is indexed in Business Periodical Index - which the library also takes - and is abstracted in Psychological Abstracts.

Girl Scouts

Winter activities of a Brownie troop and a Girl Scout troop have taken advantage of the Children's room facilities and staff lately. Brownie Troop 447 led by Mrs. Don Williams and Mrs. Joseph Pele took a trip around the world via library recordings. The 20 girls are doing a project on international friendship. They learned to say "hello" in five different languages and discussed books they had read on the foreign countries. Troop 447 comes from Central School.

Twenty-six girls of Troop 347, of Shawsheen school worked on their book badges last Tuesday. Miss Elizabeth Russell, Children's librarian addressed them on matters of "library science." They learned about the arrangement of books in the library, about the card catalog which is like an index to the shelves of books, and how to use the Readers Guide to Periodical Literature. Finally they learned how to make themselves a reading plan. Mrs. Donald Brandt and Mrs. Merle Mitchell accompanied the group.

Andover scouts will have displays at the library for National Girl Scout Week in March.

Get To The Polls

Monday is election day, one of the most important days of the year in Andover.

The polls will be open from 8 a.m. to 8 p.m.

That provides enough time for every eligible voter to cast his ballot.

Those who don't take the time to vote on election day have little right to criticize what goes on in town affairs during the rest of the year. Choosing officials who will carry out the wishes of the electorate is the first order of business.

Monday's balloting is the initial action of the annual town meeting. When the polls are closed, the meeting stands adjourned until Saturday, March 9 when action on the remainder of the articles in the warrant will come up for discussion and action.

In addition to the regular town meeting this year, there will be a special town meeting immediately following the regular one.

There are 70 articles in the regular warrant and ten in the supplementary warrant for a total of 80 which must be acted upon at one or more sessions.

The tax rate is going up this year, there is no doubt about that. The amount of the increase will depend upon actions taken at town meeting.

We urge every registered voter to go to the polls on Monday and to follow this up by attending town meeting a week from Saturday.

Future Of The Buses

The future of bus service between Andover and the other Greater Lawrence communities will depend very much on the action taken on Article 28 of the annual town meeting warrant.

This article seeks the appropriation of $21,000 and also authorization for the town manager to enter into a one year agreement with the Massachusetts Bay Transportation Authority (MBTA) to use this money to defray deficits of the bus line incurred by providing passenger service in the area or to Boston.

The MBTA intends to take over the Eastern Mass. St. Railway Co. with a $35 million grant from the Federal government's Housing and Urban Development Commission. The deal was supposed to have gone through at the first of the year, but was delayed to give the communities involved an opportunity to prepare for the change over. The MBTA is pressing to have the loan granted before March 1 so that the money will not go to some other state.

Few doubt that the Eastern Mass. will be taken over by the MBTA. Everyone interested also knows that the MBTA is not a bit concerned with local bus service in this area. The service and the income are on the South Shore and that is the area to which future planning is directed.

Meanwhile, continuation of even the limited service of the present time depends in all probability on the action taken on Article 28 when it comes up at town meeting.

Those who have to depend on buses for their transportation must take what the Eastern Mass. offers them. If the run is a paying one, such as early morning work runs, or the return from work service in the afternoon, the bus company is on the job.

But the company killed all the night runs, including the Tuesday and Friday buses last summer, and of course haven't had buses on Sunday for years.

Such poor service discourages the use of mass transportation. And because of this discouragement, many people are not concerned with bus service and couldn't care less if the service didn't exist.

Yet, there are others who are vitally interested, even though they may be in the minority.

Many of them depend on the buses to get to and from their work and to accomplish the everyday needs of life.

When the matter of bus service came up for discussion at the conference of the selectmen and the finance commission last week there were sharp differences of opinion.

At the outset, Town Manager Richard J. Bowen told the gathering that Article 28 boiled down to the fact of Andover either having bus service or not having bus service.

He explained that efforts are being made to have a private bus line take over the service in Greater Lawrence, including Andover. If such a private carrier came in the manager explained, the contract with the MBTA could be cancelled.

The manager said that the difficulty in attracting a new carrier is in the lucrative Lawrence to Boston run. With a sort of dog in the manger attitude, the Eastern Mass. or the MBTA would gladly give up the local service but wants to hang on to the run that makes money.

On the other hand, a private carrier doesn't want to take over without the assurance that the Boston run will offset some of the losses on other routes.

Everyone concerned would be glad to see a new carrier provide bus service in the area. When the Eastern Mass. got out of Haverhill, the Michaud lines took over and according to all reports is providing excellent service to the satisfaction of those using buses.

The Michaud company is one of the firms with which our officials are now dealing. There is no doubt this firm, or some other, would come in if the Lawrence-Boston run was part of the package.

One of the questions asked at the selectmen's gathering with the finance committee was whether or not the subsidization fee would vary from year to year.

Manager Bowen told the questioner that there wasn't any doubt about it changing. He said it could be $40,000 next year, $60,000 the next and so on.

The selectmen went on record as favoring the appropriation, but there was somewhat of a consensus that those concerned with bus service must go to town meeting and support the article.

Mass transportation is vital to any community. Andover is no exception. It goes without saying that Article 28 is one of the important ones in this year's warrant.

It might be added that action on this article will be preceded by one dealing with train service. Both the selectmen and the FinCom favored the appropriation of $5,000 for the continuation for a year of one-train a day service between Andover and Boston by the Boston and Maine Railroad.

What Our Readers Say-

To the Editor of the TOWNSMAN
During the past week the Andover Public Schools were on vacation and since there is limited activity available during vacation I was wondering why the skating rinks in Andover and Ballardvale were not flooded. If the town had these rinks flooded the younger children would not be skating on the rivers, etc. and this might possibly avoid an accident. Also, if they were flooded the older kids would have been able to play hockey in the evening and this would keep them off the streets.

During the summer season we invest time and money in the playgrounds and I feel we should invest the same, whenever possible, during the winter season. The town invested in these rinks and I think they should be made available to the public when temperatures permit, which they certainly did during this past vacation.

Enjoys skating.

In answer to a question regarding the size of this year's tax hike, Town Manager Richard J. Bowen this week said that it might be between $7 and $9.

This was the same estimate he made a month ago.

Meanwhile, unofficial estimates have come from members of the finance committee that the tax jump this year could go as high as $13.

Manager Bowen has said that he does not think Andover can stand a tax increase of $10 at this time. The exact amount of the increase will not be known until all of the town meeting business has been completed.

Estimates can be made from the report of the finance committee and by other town officials, but the setting of the rate will be done at town meeting.

Scouts Will Distribute Reports

Boy Scouts and Girl Scouts of Andover will join Saturday in performing a public service.

The annual town reports will be delivered house-to-house through the combined efforts of the various troops.

The Girl Scouts will do inside work by putting the annual reports into envelopes. The Boy Scouts will do the field work in making the deliveries.

Town Manager Richard J. Bowen appealed to householders to be on the lookout for the scouts as they deliver the town reports and go to the door and accept them. In this way he feels every family will be sure of receiving a report for study and reference at town meeting a week from Saturday.

Delivery of the town reports will begin about 9:30 a.m. and will continue until all of them have been distributed.

Big things are happening at Jackson Lumber Company, 245 Market Street in Lawrence! They have built a complete new section on their main floor in order to better display the newest products for home construction on the market today. Windows, doors and entrance frames have been constructed, so that customers can see first-hand the actual application of these new products and choose what is best for their building or remodeling needs.

On Wednesday, March 6th, at 7:30 P.M., Jackson Lumber Company is featuring a Home Remodeling Clinic on these new building supplies. Brochures will be provided and anyone can come, ask questions and examine this unusual display. Qualified salespeople will be on hand to serve you. The entire section is done in U. S. Plywood Siding, namely P.F.L. lap siding. Eight different sidings are incorporated in the display to give you an idea of how these sidings look in actual application.

You will see Andersen permanent shield gliding doors which are completely maintenance-free. They are made of plastic coated wood, never need painting. There is also a beautiful Andersen bow window included in this display. There are Morgan entrance frames and doors, and Pella double hung picture windows and wood folding doors, as well as a complete selection of Dacor brick the most authentic masonry substitute that has been developed.

Here is an opportunity to see a complete Home Planning Center. This is an ideal chance for individuals who are thinking of remodeling or building and also for contractors and builders. You can get ideas, prices, and most important, you can see these newest ideas in building products as they would look and perform in an actual building situation.

Jackson Lumber Company is located at 245 Market Street in Lawrence, featuring a complete line of lumber and building materials, as well as exterior and interior paint and wallpaper. Open daily from 7 A.M. to 5 P.M., Fridays until 9, and other evenings by appointment. For further information, call 686-4141.

ON THE OTHER SIDE of the desk — that's how some Andover teachers spent their winter vacation, discussing "continual progress" in a workshop with education experts and 100 participants from New England and the midwest. (DeBolt)

Educational Workshop Successful

The Nongraded School Workshop sponsored by the Andover School Department, the University of Hartford and Science Research Associates, Chicago publishers, held at Andover High school last week ranged from philosophical considerations to nuts-and-bolts application of "continual progress" education. It also produced yards of tape recordings which may emerge as a paper covering the workshop's proceedings.

Andover parents probably know the sponsoring publishing company best for its color-keyed individual progress reading kits, used in schools here and across the country — "Mommy, I'm in green in SRA now!"

Emphasized at the workshop was the basic unity of the educational philosophy of nongradedness, but the variety of its application in different school systems, adapting to the resources at hand.

Participants learned that continual progress education means changing not only the organizational patterns, but examining the entire curriculum.

They also heard that nongradedness is not for elementary students alone. Two secondary teachers from the Avon, Conn. school system, where Workshop Director Frank Driscoll is superintendent, spoke to the workshop. Charles Kepner and David Matson described the techniques of application of continual progress plans to secondary school in the areas of math and social studies, respectively, and emphasized the importance of Kindergarten-through-12th grade curriculum coordination. Secondary as well as elementary teachers from Andover participated in the workshop.

Andover school officials felt that local teachers were able to contribute significantly to the discussion groups, particularly since some had the background of the nongraded workshop in Andover last summer.

Jaccaci Exhibit At Abbot

"Impressions in the Electric Age", an exhibit of paintings and photographs by August T. Jaccaci, Jr., will be on display at the John Esther Art Gallery, Abbot Academy, March 3 through 31. The work exhibited here, 1964-1968, shows an evolution of concern from natural light and landscape to industrial and electrical mindscapes with their own internal light and vibration. Mr. Jaccaci says, "It is my painting purpose to consider ideas of metaphor, simultaneity, pattern recognition, and multicultural overlapping."

Mr. Jaccaci, a graduate of Harvard College and the Harvard Graduate School of Education, received an M.F.A. degree from the Rhode Island School of Design in 1965. He is currently an instructor in Art at Phillips Academy. Speaking of his purpose in teaching,

Mr. Jaccaci says, "that there may be fun, and that learners may ultimately bring to their world an invention of excellent individual life, a balance to the aggression of the human animal, and a guiding plan for the health and harmony of all forms of life in the one community of the world."

The exhibit will be open daily from 9 to 5. The public is cordially invited.

K of C Ladies Plan Program

The Ladies Auxiliary to Andover Council, 1078, Knights of Columbus will hold a wine-tasting evening Tuesday, March 5, for their monthly meeting.

The social evening will begin at 8 p.m. at Briarcliff, the Knights of Columbus Home.

Mrs. Ruth Ley, will conduct the wine-tasting program, which members may share with their guests. Mrs. Theodore Surette is chairman of the event, assisted by Mrs. Aime Reming and Mrs. William Walsh.

Little League To Organize

It's not quite the first robin, but it's something. The Andover Little League will hold a general meeting on Wednesday, March 6, to make plans for the coming season. Fathers with an interest in helping in any way are invited to attend the meeting at 7:30 p.m. in the meeting room of the Andover branch of the Bay State Merchants' National Bank.

The agenda will include announcement of officers, reports on equipment purchased for the year and on solicitation from the Leagues, the treasurer's report, and finally, organization of the try-outs to be held the last three weeks in March in the Phillips Academy Cage.

All managers and coaches must attend the meeting.

High School Open House

Open House will be held at the new High School Saturday and Sunday from 2 to 5 p.m.

A staff will be on hand to escort visitors through the educational facility.

Members of the faculty under the chairmanship of Mrs. Sandra Hawkes have been making plans for the two days of activity at the new school which was occupied about a week ago.

YOUTH MEETING

Superintendent of Schools Edward I. Erickson has scheduled a preliminary meeting today on youth problems with representatives of the board of health, recreation department, the Andover Council of Churches, public schools and Det. Sgt. Robert Deyernmond.

The purpose of the preliminary meeting is to plan formation of a wider community committee on youth problems. Plans for such a committee arose from January's system-wide teacher education program on drug abuse, but Erickson pointed out that the committee on youth problems which he has in mind will be formed to consider other youth problems as well.
